- 238 PAUL WELLER LETTER. A hand signed letter circa 1978/79, from Paul Weller to a fan, reading: 'Dear Stephen, thanks for the letter and paper of which this letter is composed on. I thought your stuff was really interesting, but i preferred the 'two liners' which to me said more than the whole lyrics/words/whatever. I especially liked (escape in melody, reality in words) and 'peace cliché' and 'violence is a resort'. They were brilliant lines. All that acid you've taken! - your brain must be like a fucking baked potato! Anyway Steve it's nice to hear from you and i hope your bands still going, good luck with that. Best wishes, Paul Weller. P.S. always write when you want'. To measure 7x9", written on a piece of notebook paper. £300.00 - £500.00
